To whom it may concern,

Terry Renaker is the owner of Cork & Bottle, an alcohol, beverage and spirits delivery service based in Phoenix, Arizona. I've had the pleasure of working with Terry since moving to Arizona in 2001.

As a full service caterer, I am often called upon to provide alcohol and beverage service for our clients for use in their homes, places of business and various local venues throughout the area. State laws forbid caterers to take on these responsibilities directly, which makes a qualified distributor extremely valuable when serving our customers. However, I got really lucky when I found Terry because not only is he an honest business person and a dependable distributor of the products he carries, but he is infinitely knowledgeable about his inventory and always current on new trends and changes in the industry.

His insights and guidance in planning for the appropriate quantities of beverages based on length of event, number of guests, number of bars in use, time of day, etc. has been a wonderful tool in ensuring that our clients have all that they will need, but that they do not overspend.

Additionally, Terry has a proven track record of dependability and timeliness, which is absolutely critical in my business. I would definitely recommend Terry and Cork & Bottle to any caterer, event planner or person who is in need of spirits or beverages for their event. I have no doubts that they will be happy with the results and that their beverages will be plentiful and carefully selected.

Please do not hesitate to call our offices for further information or assistance.
